Nina Bernat

double bass

Double bassist Nina Bernat, acclaimed for her interpretive maturity, expressive depth, and technical clarity, emerges onto the world stage with awards and accolades, thrilling audiences everywhere.

This year, Nina is honored as a recipient of the Avery Fisher Career Grant and winner of the CAG Elmaleh Competition. Recent First Prizes include the 2022 Lillian and Maurice Barbash J.S. Bach Competition, the Minnesota Orchestra Young Artist Competition, the Juilliard Double Bass Competition, and the 2019 International Society of Bassists Solo Competition. She was also named a Bowers Program Artist at the Chamber Music Society of Lincoln Center for their 2024-2027 seasons.

Engaged in all aspects of double bass performance, in 2019 she was invited to perform as guest principal bassist with the Israel Philharmonic Orchestra, serving under the batons of András Schiff and Osmo Vänskä. Among her notable chamber performances are appearances with the Jupiter Symphony Chamber Players, Bridgehampton Chamber Music Series, and Mostly Music. Nina has participated in both the Marlboro Music Festival and the Lake Champlain Music Festival for the 2022 and 2023 seasons. She returned to the 2023 Grace Note Farm Summer Music Festival in Rhode Island for her third season, as both performer and co-organizer. Nina's 2023-2024 season includes a concerto debut with the Minnesota Orchestra and performances as guest principal of the Oslo Philharmonic. Nina performs on an instrument passed down from her father, Mark Bernat, attributed to Guadagnini.

Lun Li is a violinist committed to creating thought-provoking, boundary-pushing concert experiences for contemporary audiences around the world. A native of Shanghai who is currently based in New York, Lun won First Prize in the 2021 Young Concert Artists Susan Wadsworth International Auditions, and was named John French Violin Chair at YCA. Additionally, he is also the joint winner of the First Prize at the 2021 Lillian and Maurice Barbash J.S.

Bach Competition. Recently, he was named a Bowers Program Artist at the Chamber Music Society of Lincoln Center for their 2024-2027 seasons.

Lun has appeared on major musical stages around the world, including Helsinki Music Centre, Konzerthaus Berlin, Wiener Konzerthaus, and Verizon Hall at the Kimmel Center. In the 22-23 Season, he made his solo recital debut in New York's Merkin Concert Hall at Kaufman Music Center and at the Kennedy Center in Washington D. C. and his concerto debut at Lincoln Center.

An avid chamber musician, he has performed at the Marlboro Music Festival, and the Verbier Music Festival Academy.

Lun holds degrees from the Curtis Institute of Music (BM'20) and The Juilliard School (MM'22). His mentors include Ida Kavafian, Catherine Cho, and Joseph Lin. He is currently pursuing an artist diploma at The Juilliard School under the tutelage of Catherine Cho.

Lun plays on the Stradivarius "Samazeuilh" 1735 violin, on generous loan from the Nippon Music Foundation.

Tianyou Ma

violin

Violinist, Tianyou Ma has been a prize winner in numerous prestigious international competitions, including the 2021 Lillian and Maurice Barbash J.S. Bach Competition (Joint Grand Prize), the Singapore International Violin Competition (Bach Prize), the Sendai International Music Competition, The Menuhin International Violin Competition (Bach Prize) and the Postacchini Competition.

Tianyou has performed as a soloist with orchestras including the Royal Philharmonic Orchestra, Sendai Philharmonic Orchestra, Webern Kammerphilharmonie, Stuttgart Chamber Orchestra, London Doctors' Orchestra, Adelaide Youth Orchestra, and Yehudi Menuhin School Orchestra. He has performed as a soloist and a chamber musician in many countries in Europe, Asia, the USA, and Oceania. He has spent his summers studying at the Verbier Festival Academy, Gstaad and International Summer Academy (Internationale Sommerakademie der mdw).

Tianyou began studies at the Elder Conservatorie of Music in Adelaide, Australia in 2010, when he was awarded a full scholarship to study with Keith Crellin. Since 2014, Tianyou attended The Yehudi Menuhin School in the U.K. where he studied with Diana Galvydyte. He was also awarded a full scholarship covering all his living fees from the Music and Dance Scheme in the U.K. from 2016 – 2019. Tianyou studied with Pamela Frank and Shmuel Ashkenasi at the Curtis Institute of Music in Philadelphia from 2019-2023.. Tianyou is now pursuing his Masters Degree with Catherine Cho at the Juilliard School. He is the recipient of a Kovner Fellowship.

Rachell Ellen Wong

violin

The inaugural winner of the Lillian and Maurice Barbash J.S. Bach Competition, violinist Rachell Ellen Wong made history in 2020 when she was awarded the prestigious Avery Fisher Career Grant, becoming the only baroque artist in the program's history to receive the honor. Her exceptional blend of technical virtuosity on gut strings, expressive musicianship, and understanding of period performance practices has garnered international critical acclaim and a dedicated following.

With performances across five continents, she has established herself as one of the leading historical performers of her generation, collaborating with esteemed ensembles such as the Academy of Ancient Music, Jupiter Ensemble, Bach Collegium Japan, The English Concert, and Les Arts Florissants, among others. Equally accomplished on the modern violin, has performed as a soloist with orchestras such as Orquesta Sinfónica Nacional de Panamá, Orquesta Sinfónica de Costa Rica, and the Seattle Symphony. Currently, she serves as concertmaster of the Seattle Baroque Orchestra. Alongside the exceptional conductor and keyboardist David Belkovski, Rachell is co-founder of her ensemble Twelfth Night, which will be making its Carnegie Hall debut in May 2024.

Rachell holds degrees from The Juilliard School, Indiana University, and the University of Texas at Austin. Originally from the Pacific Northwest, she lives in New York City with her partner and two bunnies. For more information about Rachell, please visit her website at www.rachellwong.com

 ((⦿)) Livestream option
 First Presbyterian Church of Bethlehem

Unite in the joyous celebration of Bach's Magnificat and Christen ätzt diesen Tag, BWV 63. Both written in 1723, these masterpieces are in turn devout, playful, ebullient, and full of infectious and rhapsodic joy. The music resonates through centuries, bringing us together in shared history and vibrant musical traditions.

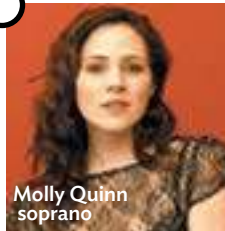

This season we add a new dimension to our carol-singing tradition. We're excited to feature a new carol composed just for our Christmas concerts. Get ready to join in singing new and beloved carols at the conclusion of the performance. Dive into the heart of holiday tradition with us and embrace the joy of the Christmas spirit through the universal language of music.

((⦿)) Consider sharing the Bethlehem Christmas concert with friends and family with our livestream option. A wonderful gift – or an option for those not able to join us in person.

ALL-BACH NEW YEAR'S EVE

The venerable Amor Artis chamber choir and New York City's finest Baroque instrumentalists present a festive program of some of Bach's most resplendent music, including his motet Singet dem Herrn, the New Year's portions of the Christmas Oratorio, the "Dona Nobis Pacem" from the Mass in B Minor, and, of course, Auld Lang Syne.

Amor Artis is delighted to feature the 2022 Grand Prize winner of the Lillian and Maurice Barbash J.S. Bach Competition, bassist Nina Bernat.

Join us to ring in the New Year with the music of J.S. Bach! But first, Amor Artis opens its 2023-2024 season on Sunday December 3 with An Amor Artis Holiday, an immersive program with repertoire spanning ten centuries. Get your tickets today!
